

Ever since I subscribed I never really listen to regular FM anymore. You folks should worry about other things other than taking that away. The type of programming that sat radio offers has something for every walk of life.

Rock On Guys and Gals